

AXIS Dance Competition Rules and Regulations 2026

Levels:

We understand that competing studios may have different skill levels, so AXIS is proud to offer five separate levels of competition. Teachers are left to their own discretion when entering routines. AXIS judges reserve the right to "bump up" a routine to a higher level that they feel has a more advanced skill set than the level they were entered in. All discussions are final. Routines that are moved by the judges or management are exempt from the level percentage rule.

NOVICE LEVEL:

Little or no competition experience.

This level is reserved for beginner dancers only.

Dancers in this level should be working on attempting skills such as single/ double pirouettes, grand jetes, grand battements, flexibility skills, and fouette sequences but show signs of unsteadiness and improper control.

Tap sounds in this level should be simple, needing improvement in clarity and definition.

Dancers in this level must not train more than 3 hours per week including dance / acrobatics. If a dancer competes in the Novice Level as a soloist, they must remain in the Novice Level for all solos.

In mixed level Groups, Lines, and Productions the higher percentage of the dancers will determine the level.

If a Duo/Trio has one or more dancer(s) competing as a soloist at a higher level that routine must be entered in the higher level.

All Duo/Trio, Groups, Lines and Productions can always choose to compete at a higher level.

NOVICE PLUS LEVEL:

Limited competition experience.

This level is reserved for beginner dancers only.

Dancers in this level should be working on attempting skills such as double pirouettes, grand jetes, grand battements, flexibility skills, and fouette sequences but only show minor signs of unsteadiness and improper control.

Tap sounds in this level should be basic.

Dancers in this level must not train more than 4 hours per week including dance / acrobatics. If a dancer competes in the Novice Plus Level as a soloist, they must remain in the Novice Plus Level for all solos.

In mixed level Groups, Lines, and Productions the higher percentage of the dancers will determine the level.

If a Duo/Trio has one or more dancer(s) competing as a soloist at a higher level that routine must be entered in the higher level.

All Duo/Trio, Groups, Lines and Productions can always choose to compete at a higher level.

INTERMEDIATE LEVEL:

This Level is for dancers on the rise between Novice Plus and AXIS.

Dancers in this level should have developing talent demonstrating moderate to average technique and polish.

Dancers in this level should show signs of starting to master skills such as double / triple pirouettes, grand jetes, grand battements, flexibility skills, and fouette sequences with only minor inconsistencies.

Tap sounds in this level should demonstrate a moderate knowledge of dynamics, rhythm and timing.

Dancers in this level must not train more than 6 hours per week including dance / acrobatics. If a dancer competes in the Intermediate Level as a soloist, they must remain in the Intermediate Level for all solos.

In mixed level Groups, Lines, and Productions the higher percentage of the dancers will determine the level.

If a Duo/Trio has one or more dancer(s) competing as a soloist at a higher level that routine must be entered in the higher level.

All Duo/Trio, Groups, Lines and Productions can always choose to compete at a higher level.

AXIS LEVEL:

This level is the highest and most competitive.

Dancers in this level should demonstrate proficient to outstanding technique, choreography and performance skill.

Tap sounds in this level should show advanced dynamics, rhythm and timing.

If a dancer competes in the AXIS Level as a soloist, they must remain in the AXIS Level for all solos.

In mixed level Groups, Lines, and Productions the higher percentage of the dancers will determine the level.

If a Duo/Trio has one or more dancer(s) competing as a soloist at a higher level that routine must be entered in the higher level.

SPARKLE LEVEL:

This level is designed for dances with special needs.

The Sparkle Level will be its own complete level with high score awards.

When registering you will be able to let us know your specific dancer's challenges in our notes section.

AGE CATEGORIES:

Tiny Tot 3 - 4 years old

Petite 5 – 6 years old

Mini 7 – 8 years old

Junior 9 – 11 years old Teen

12 – 14 years old

Senior 15 – 19 years old Adult

20 years & up

The average age of all performers in a Duo/Trio, Small Group, Large Group, Line or Production determines the appropriate age division. The dancer's age is determined as of January 1st. This also includes solos. To figure the average, add the ages of all the performers in a routine and then divide by the number of performers. DROP THE DECIMAL POINT. For example, if the average age is 12.9, this routine would compete in the 12 year old age division. Any routine is allowed to compete in one age division higher but must be approved by AXIS Dance Competition when entries are submitted. Additionally, if a protest arises regarding age, all competitors must be prepared to present proof of age. All protests must be presented in writing to the AXIS Dance Competition Director within one half hour of the incident. All protests must be signed. We require that proof of age be presented in the event of a protest.

Bump Rule:

Duo/Trios, Groups, Lines and Productions including dancers of different age divisions will compete no more than one age division younger than the oldest dancer, regardless of average age. However, if a dancer 20 years of age or older (regardless of professional or amateur status) competes in a routine, the routine must be in the adult age division. There will be no cash award in the adult age division.
